HYMNS 29TH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME C

No. 63 Glory and Praise to Our God

No. 43 Living Water

No. 41 Strong and Constant

In the end, we are not Catholics because our leaders are flawless, but because we find the claims of Catholicism both compelling and beautiful. We are Catholics because the Church speaks of the Trinitarian God whose very nature is love; of Jesus the Lord, crucified and risen from the dead; of the Holy Spirit, who inspires the followers of Christ up and down the ages; of the sacraments, which convey the Christ-life to us; and of the saints, who are our friends in the spiritual order. This is the treasure; this is why we stay.

Bishop Robert Barron Letter to a Suffering Church.

ACROSS THE GENERATIONS

School Advisory Council The election to replace retiring members of the current School Advisory Council will be held on Wednesday November 20, 2019. An information evening will be held on Wednesday 23 October at 7:00pm for those interested in nomination for this election. The information afternoon will be presented by Mrs Cathy Ible from the Catholic Schools Office, and will be held in the school library. You are strongly encouraged to attend this evening if you are considering nomination. The School Advisory Council will be calling for nominations from the school and parish community to join this small group who work collaboratively and advise the Principal and the Parish Priest on a range of issues within the school

Our St Joseph's School Advisory Council exists to support the faith development, the learning and the well-being of all students.

DOING A FEW THINGS WELL

THIS SUNDAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY.

A SPECIAL COLLECTION WILL BE TAKEN UP AT BOTH MASSES THIS WEEKEND TO ASSIST WITH THE CHURCH'S MISSIONARY WORKS. ENVELOPES ARE AVAILABLE ON THE PEWS FOR YOUR DONATION

THE PASTORAL COUNCIL'S next meeting is scheduled for this Tuesday 22 October at 5:30pm in the Parish Hall.

MAKING CHURCH MATTER

SACRED SILENCE, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times. Its nature, however, depends on the moment when it occurs in different parts of the celebration.

- For in the Penitential Act and again after invitation to pray, individuals recollect themselves;
- Whereas after a reading or after the homily, all meditate briefly on what they have heard;
- Then after Communion, they praise God in their hearts and pray to him.

Even before the celebration itself, it is a praiseworthy practice for silence to be observed. So that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred celebration in a devout and fitting manner

AWAKENING THE FAITHFUL

OCTOBER 2019
Extraordinary Missionary Month

Our mission, then, is rooted in the fatherhood of God and the motherhood of the Church. The mandate given by the Risen Jesus at Easter is inherent in Baptism: as the Father has sent me, so I send you, filled with the Holy Spirit, for the reconciliation of the world (cf. Jn 20:19–23; Mt 28:16–20). This mission is part of our identity as Christians; it makes us responsible for enabling all men and women to realize their vocation to be adoptive children of the Father, to recognize their personal dignity and to appreciate the intrinsic worth of every human life, from conception until natural death. Today's rampant secularism, when it becomes an aggressive cultural rejection of God's active fatherhood in our history, is an obstacle to authentic human fraternity, which finds expression in reciprocal respect for the life of each person. Without the God of Jesus Christ, every difference is reduced to a baneful threat, making impossible any real fraternal acceptance and fruitful unity within the human race.

(Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, §25)

Our life is mission

A Christian community that does not generate priestly and religious vocations is a community affected by some spiritual illness. We can ordain the virii probati and others, but the basic problems will remain: an evangelization without the Gospel, a Christianity without Christ, a spirituality without the Holy Spirit.

In particular, he is responsible for missionary animation in Africa and America. Father Martin was appointed a Synod Father by Pope Francis.*]

SEEKING OUT THOSE WHO BELONG

Prayer for Rain

God our Father, You created our earth to nourish us and give us life

And Jesus told us to ask and it will be given to us
We ask now in Faith, Hope and Love that you look with favour on our drought stricken land,
Our starving animals and failing produce.

Sustain, strengthen and give new heart to our farmers and all those affected by this drought.

In your loving providence send us your abundant rain soon,
Renew the faith of your people and the face of our land.

We make this prayer with many, through Jesus Christ who gives new life to all living things.

The Parish of St Patrick's Glen Innes and the Diocese of Armidale are committed to the care, wellbeing and protection of children, young people and vulnerable people in our community. May our message be that child protection and the dignity of every person is the responsibility of every adult. glensafeguarding@armidale.catholic.org.au or Phone (02) 6732 5191
