HYMNS 32ND SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME C

- 132 On Eagles Wings
- 165 The Blessing Song
- 207 Like a Shepherd He feeds His flock
- 130 Sing a New Song

In the end, we are not Catholics because our leaders are flawless, but because we find the claims of Catholicism both compelling and beautiful. We are Catholics because the Church speaks of the Trinitarian God whose very nature is love; of Jesus the Lord, crucified and risen from the dead; of the Holy Spirit, who inspires the followers of Christ up and down the ages; of the sacraments, which convey the Christ-life to us; and of the saints, who are our friends in the spiritual order. This is the treasure; this is why we stay.

The SACRAMENTALITY OF THE WORD can be understood by analogy with the real presence of Christ under the appearances of the consecrated bread and wine. By approaching the altar and partaking in the Eucharist banquet we truly share in the body and blood of Christ. The proclamation of God's word at the celebration entails an acknowledgement that Christ himself is present, that he speaks to us, and that he wishes to be heard. Saint Jerome speaks of the way we ought to approach both the Eucharist and the word of God: "We are reading the sacred Scriptures. For me, the Gospel is the Body of Christ; for me, the holy Scriptures are his teaching. And when he says: whoever does not eat my flesh and drink my blood (Jn 6:53), even though these words can also be understood of the Eucharist, Christ's body and blood are really the word of Scripture, God's teaching. When we approach the Eucharist, if a crumb falls to the ground we are troubled. Yet when we are listening to the word of God, and God's Word and Christ's flesh and blood are being poured into our ears we pay no heed, what great peril should we not feel?" Christ, truly present under the species of bread and wine, is analogously present in the word proclaimed in the liturgy.

The Catholic Bishops of Australia have announced a National Prayer Campaign for Drought Relief to take place during November. People across the country are encouraged to pray for the gift of rain, for people affected by the drought and to provide practical support, where possible. The Bishops note that large parts of the country are directly affected by the drought, but the impact is national – and so should the response be national.

Prayer

Eternal God,
In wisdom and love
You created our earth to sustain us and give us life.
We turn to you now
in faith, hope and love, Asking you to look with favour on our drought-stricken land, on our starving animals,
on our failing crops.
Strengthen, sustain and give new heart to our farmers and to all who are affected by drought be with those who support them.
In your loving providence, send abundant rain
and restore our parched earth.

Father of all compassion, hear our prayer through Jesus Christ your Son, in whom the promise of new life has dawned, and through the power of the Holy Spirit
the Lord the giver of life:
Renew your faithful people;
Renew the face of the earth.
Our Lady of the Southern Cross,
Mary, help of Christians -

Parishes, schools, families and other Catholic communities across the country are being encouraged to participate in the National Prayer Campaign for Drought, which also invites people to provide assistance to those most in need. The month of prayer is an additional response to the local work being done in affected communities.

St Patrick's Hall now has a smart TV installed for Adult Faith Education and maybe some use by the St Patrick's Play Group. It is hope to be able to use the newly constructed Meeting Space for Adult Catechesis, Youth Catechesis, Professional Standards development, as we enter into 2020 and our preparation for the Parish SESQUICENTARY 2021.
